NO RECORD ON END OF BASE BILLARD BOOKS BALL WAR

Stocks to John F. Hall

HEMINGWAY RECEIVED $75,000

For a Reason Not Disclosed Federal League Magnates in the Evi-

New York, Dec. 17.—There was no record on the books of the Billard company which would show that the stock of the Metropolitan Steamship company was ever sold to the late Governor John F. Hill of Maine, according to testimony adduced by the government yesterday and the trial of Edward D. Robbins and 10 other former directors of the New York. New Haven & Hartford railroad. This stock, it is alleged by the government, was transferred \( \) the control of the Billard company by means of a series of involved financial transaction.

of the Billard company by means of a series of involved financial transactions engineered at the behest of Robbins, for the benefit of the New Haven and then sold to Governor Hill.

The testimony was given by Samuel Hemingway, president of the Second National bank of New Haven, treasurer of the Billard company and brother of the defendant, James F. Hemingway. "If the books of the Billard company." asked James W. Osborne for the government. "had been subjected to inspection by an officer of the government he could not have found out, could he, that the Metropolitan stock had been transferred o Governor Hill!" "Well, it might be shown by other entries," said Mr. Hemingway.

"Show me such an entry."

Hemingway examined the books of the ompany and conceded that they did not ontain such an entry.

Hemingway, whose recollection throughout his testimony Wednesday and yesterday was very poor, was asked whether he had not at one time received a gift of $75,000 from the Billard com-

"I couldn't say," was the answer. "Do you know any reason why he should make you a gift of $75,000," asked Mr. Osborne. "Because it was in his heart," replied Hemingway.

The witness denied that it was he who brought Billard and Mellen together. His brother, he said, was a New Haven railroad director and Billard made the witness a director of the Boston & Maine. It was about the time the New Haven acquired the Boston & Maine that Billard gave the witness this $75,-
